

About Southwestern College

As a non-profit institution founded in 1885 by the United Methodist Church, Southwestern College provides a values-based learning experience that emphasizes intellectual, personal, and spiritual growth. Offering Bachelor's, Master's and doctoral degrees on-ground and online, Southwestern College is committed to the development of lifetime learning and responsible citizenship.

Southwestern College – Professional Studies programs embrace prior learning and facilitate career progression for working adults, members of armed forces and persons in transitions. With six-week online courses where faculty are practitioners, students can experience flexibility and immediately experience class information at work.
