What is The Family Advocacy Program?

Today's Military Families experience various levels of Stress! The Army's Family Advocacy Program is available to help Families adapt to Military life, promote positive Family relationships, and reduce incidents of Family violence.

The Family Advocacy Program exists to prevent spouse and child abuse and/or neglect, and to provide intervention in cases where abuse has occurred, and treatment for those affected by abuse within Military Families, under AR 608-18.
