Fort Riley Family Extension Program

What is the Family Extension Program (FEP)

This program is designed to support Families who are struggling with the challenges unique to Military life. Deployments, isolation, reunions and the everyday demands of parenting can create significant stress on Families. We are here to help you cope with those unique challenges by keeping your Family strong.

With a variety of options available, the FAPS will offer home visits, school visits, parenting classes and Family activities that will assist with the challenges associated in Military life.

This program designed to assist and support Military Families. ALL SERVICES ARE FREE AND PARTICIPATION IS VOLUNTARY.

Who are we?

A team of qualified Family Advocacy Program Specialists (LSCSWs),

Who is eligible?

All Military Families with children ages 3 and up are eligible to participate free of charge in all available services.

How do I enroll?

Call 785-239-9435 during regular business hours, Monday-Friday 8:00 am-4:30 pm. We are located in the Army Community Service building 7264 Normandy Drive on Custer Hill.

Can you come to our home?

Home visits are arranged at your convenience. Visits can range from weekly to monthly based on your family needs. Visits can be scheduled so that both parents are present. Parenting involves constant learning and skill building to meet the challenges of caring for the needs of your family.
