

Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. Lee Magee

Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. Lee Magee is the son of a career Army officer and claims Leavenworth, Kan. as home. He graduated from the United States Military Academy and commissioned as an Armor Officer in 1994. He was first assigned to 3rd Battalion, 66th Armor at Fort Hood, Texas, serving as a Tank Platoon Leader, Scout Platoon Leader and Battalion Adjutant throughout the Raider Brigade's Force XXI development and fielding. After completing the Armor Advanced Course, he served as the Brigade Plans Officer for 3/1AD at Fort Riley, then Battalion S-4 and C Company Commander in 2d Battalion, 70th Armor, which included two deployments to Kuwait under Intrinsic Action and Operation Desert Spring. Following command, he served as a resident training advisor to the 81st Armored Brigade (WA-ARNG), and assisted in the mobilization of several Guard units for OEF and OIF from Fort Lewis, WA. In 2007, LTC Magee completed CGSC and became the Executive Officer for 1st Battalion, 12th Infantry at Fort Hood, Texas. He deployed as the XO for 2d Battalion, 7th Cavalry to Iraq's Maysan Province for OIF 08-09. Upon return from Iraq, he attended SAMS. LTC Magee next served as USARPAC's Operational Design Team Chief and Future Operations Chief for its Contingency Command Post deploying to multiple Theater Security Cooperation missions in Japan, India, Singapore, and the Philippines.

Lieutenant Colonel Magee's education includes a Bachelors Degree from the United States Military Academy and a Masters of International Relations from Norwich University. His military education includes the Armor Officers Basic and Advanced Courses, the Combined Arms Staff Services School, the Command and General Staff College, and the School of Advanced Military Studies.

LTC Magee's military decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Achievement Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, the National Defense Service Medal with Bronze Service Star, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal with Bronze Star, the Iraqi Campaign Medal with 2 Bronze Service Stars, the Global War on Terror Service Medal, the Army Service Ribbon, the Overseas Service Ribbon and the Philippines Medal of Military Merit. LTC Magee also earned the Parachutist Badge and the Air Assault Badge.